How to Create

Authentic Affirmations

to Change Your Life

Elements of Affirmations:

V

Concise

Self-Reflective

Future-Focused

Clear Outcome

The Three R's Are Key

Step 1: Reflect

Step 2: Refine

Step 3: Repeat

Using the prompts, reflect on your accomplishments, challenges and goals.

Prompt:	Reflection:
Write about your greatest accomplishment and describe how that speaks to your character or values.
Describe something that's challenging you today, this week, or this year.
Think about your life without any obstacles and write what that would look like.
Refine Your Themes
Read your responses from the journal prompts. Find a common theme or point that makes you feel strongly and write six words describing the goal, concept, or emotion.

Write and Repeat Your Mantra

Using your work, write a simple statement that makes you feel positive power or energy, and repeat it.

Affirmation Examples:

"I accept my emotions and let them serve their purpose."

"I deserve and expect financial abundance."

